

AALC understands that having a healthy and available workforce in place is critical for SLP communities to continue to protect against the COVID-19 Pandemic. Given the current "stay-at-home order" and the closure of child care programs throughout Illinois, many of your essential employees may be in need of alternative child care resources.

To learn more about what Illinois is doing to offer child care resources to its essential employees, click here.